Upcoming Activities

- There are two key upcoming opportunities for the public to weigh in on the draft Title 21 code:
- Late March 2026 (tentative): the Public Review Draft of the Title 21 code will be released for a 45-day public comment period. Following the public comment period, the project team will compile, analyze, and respond to all comments.
- Summer 2026: the Public Hearing Draft of the Title 21 code will be released, and the adoption process begins. This will include Public Hearings with the Planning Commission and City Council. The public will have opportunities to testify during this process.

Recently Completed Activities

- December 2025 – January 2026: Planning Commission Work Sessions. Facilitated a series of work sessions with the Planning Commission (December 3, December 17, January 7; February 4, February 18) to review sections of the draft zoning code in greater detail. These work sessions provided an opportunity for the Planning Commission to inform the draft code ahead of the release of the Public Review Draft. The agenda packet and videos of the work sessions are on the City's website, and will be linked on the project website as they become available.

Ongoing: Monthly updates and/or work sessions with the Planning Commission and City Council

Roles of the Planning Commission and City Council

Planning Commission

The Planning Commission is the advisory body for the Title 21 Update process.

- Share guidance, feedback, and local knowledge during the code drafting process.
- Provide feedback on draft materials, including the draft code.
- Make a recommendation to the City Council regarding adoption the Title 21 Update.

City Council Engagement

- The project team will share periodic updates with the City Council, often via the City Manager’s reports.
- City Council members can stay informed about the process by attending Planning Commission meetings, reading project documents, participating in community activities, and reviewing the public review draft of the revised code.
- The City Council will be responsible for the adoption of the Title 21 Update.
